

V. Gul

Food products as an object of the private rights

The article refers to the food as the objects of civil rights, unjustly overlooked legislators and academics. It influences human life and health, ensuring of immediate natural human need for nutrition. Attention is paid to the requirements for these rights objects, offered to settle them in Chapter 13 of the Civil Code of Ukraine and to unify the legal terminology.

Food safety is a global problem that threatens the most legally protected values life and human health, as an export oriented manufacturing activities with their impact on the economy of Ukraine. Their quality affects the quality of life, social activity of man, demographic aspects.

Food Safety is manifested as requirements for the food raw materials and accompanying materials through standards that are usually treated, preventing malicious threats to their effects on the body and health of not only present but also future generations. They mostly are mandatory and can not be otherwise.

Key words: legal relation, food, rights objects.