

T. Minyazeva

Implementation of the International Law norms on the execution of imprisonment in the Russian Federation

The article considers the issues of human rights, freedoms and legitimate interests enforcement of persons sentenced to imprisonment in accordance with international standards of treatment and in accordance with the Concept of Russian Federation penal system development until 2020.

Key words: imprisonment, penal system, convicted, health, employment, prisons, the treatment of prisoners.